KARAMA

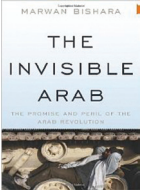

Arab and Islamic World Information Project

June 2012

KARAMA's vision is that a fresh understanding of the hopes and aspirations of the people of the Arab and Islamic world will replace the stereotypes and distortions that dominate public discourse on the region. To that end, KARAMA has compiled this collection of books, a collection that lends insight to the region's perception of its own history, its relationship with Europe and America, and critical issues that it faces today.
